

Frequently Asked Questions for the Private Sector

Does NUPCO serve private sector customers?

- Yes, NUPCO provides its services to the private sector through the e-Marketplace platform, as well as logistics and other services based on customer needs.
- For more information, please contact us via customer service or email at CommercialPrivate@nupco.com.

What services are offered to the private sector?

- NUPCO offers a range of customizable services tailored to private sector customer needs.
- These services include logistics, the private sector e-Marketplace platform, delivery services, and other solutions.

How can private sector customers contact NUPCO for inquiries or services?

- Customers can reach NUPCO through the contact number 920018184 or by sending an email to CommercialPrivate@nupco.com.

Are the currently available services the only options for private sector customers?

- NUPCO currently offers a variety of ready-to-use services for private sector customers and is continuously working on developing additional solutions.
- NUPCO is prepared to offer services based on customer needs and is committed to ongoing qualitative and quantitative improvements in service offerings.
- For more information, please contact us via customer service or email at CommercialPrivate@nupco.com.